You can fill the metadata of your files, use QuickMeta, create sets and use other program features, upload as many files to the agencies as you want.

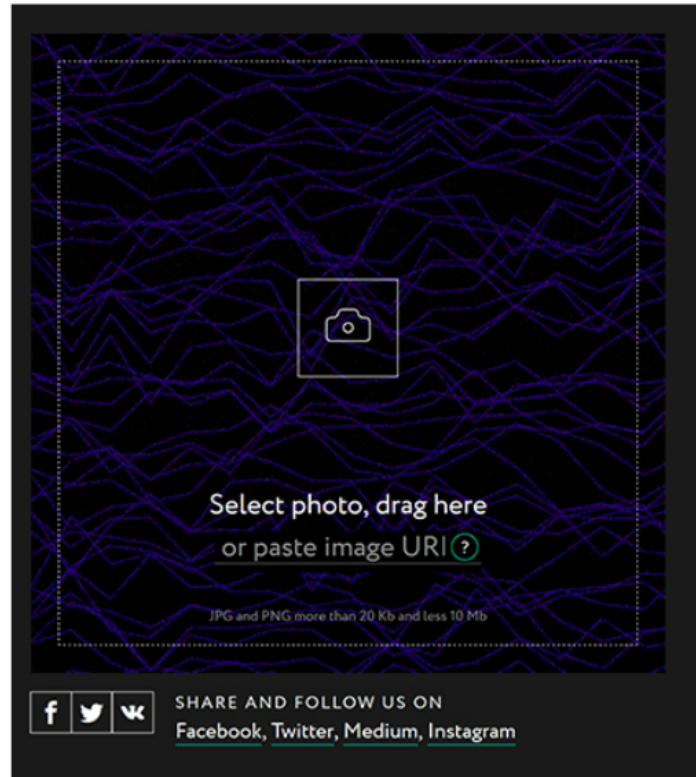

The only feature that is limited without a paid subscription: you can submit up to 33 files to every agency per month. The submission is the process of filling the custom metadata fields on the agency website and submitting it for the review. If you're working with the microstock agencies professionally and you need more submissions then you can purchase one of the subscription packages listed below:
